

ATRIUM HOTEL

Skiathos Island ★★☆☆

The Atrium* is situated on the lush island of Skiathos, in full harmony with the landscape. Built amphitheatrically on a picturesque pine hillside and 100m above the magnificent sandy beach of Agia Paraskevi-Platanias, it affords breathtaking panoramic sea views from all rooms and public areas.

Design & Style

Inspired by Nature

Designed by its architect owners - Nikos & Heidi Chatzimichalis Schwartz - the Atrium Hotel stands out for its monastic style. It perfectly blends the traditional and the modern, making full use of the beauty of natural stone and wood. An atmosphere of peaceful relaxation, truly inspired by nature, is achieved.

Skiathos is located in the north-western Aegean. It is the smallest yet most cosmopolitan island of the Sporades group. It presents an ideal combination for leisure and sea sports. There are more than 60 beautiful beaches with golden sand or white pebbles and a turquoise sea to swim or sail in, forests of pine and olive trees to walk through and isolated chapels and monasteries to visit. All around the island there are numerous restaurants and bars.
